Exhibit B to Registration Statement*Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at <http://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: <http://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: <http://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterespionage Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Dear Mr. Filat:

This letter is to certify that Fianna Strategies will continue to represent you in the United States and with other international partners.

Fianna Strategies LLC (FS) will represent you, as President of the Liberal Democratic Party of Moldova, as a government relations and communications consultant in the United States.

This representation will include:

- providing advisory services, as required, to you and to other representatives working on your behalf, as requested
- assisting you in building partnerships and relationships with relevant US audiences and constituencies, including the administration, the US Congress, think tanks, and other organizations, as well as the media
- communicating key positions to US and other partners, including to ensure strong support for Moldovan democracy, security, sovereignty, territorial integrity, and European integration; and to provide updates and details on domestic and other developments.

The specific financial terms of this agreement will be detailed at a later date; the conditions of this agreement are below.

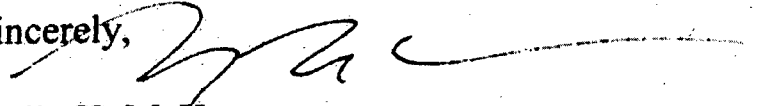

1. FS shall coordinate with you, as requested, to plan outreach to key audiences.
2. Government relations and communications services to be rendered under this agreement will be for a one-year term, covering the period from the signing of this agreement through July 31, 2016. The specific financial terms of this agreement will be detailed in a future letter that will amend this agreement.
3. FS shall treat information relating to the activities of the client in these matters as private and confidential and shall not disclose such information to any other party unless asked to do so by the client, except as required by United States law and regulation (including Title 22, Chapter 11 of the United States Code pertaining to the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as well as Lobbying Disclosure Act requirements). This covenant shall survive the termination of this Agreement.
4. FS shall: avoid any and all behavior which might damage the client's reputation or which may in any way adversely affect its interests, reputation, or assets; hold all necessary negotiations and manage all arrangements necessary for performing assigned tasks; and inform the client of any circumstances which may constrain FS from immediately launching, executing, or completing tasks.
5. In connection with the services or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, FS and the client, each represent and warrant that they shall at all relevant times comply and cause their respective officers, employees, representatives, consultants, affiliates and subcontractors (collectively, such party's "Group") to be in compliance with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, directives, ordinances, order or statute (collectively the "Laws"), including but not limited to such Laws dealing with improper or illegal payments, gifts, or gratuities to public officials or private individuals for the purpose of influencing their decisions, the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 as amended and revised, all applicable anti-bribery Laws of the Republic of Moldova, any applicable anti-bribery Laws of other countries, the U.S. Export Administration Regulations, the International Traffic in Arms Regulations, and the sanctions regulations administered by the U.S. Treasury Department Office of Foreign Assets Control. Further, FS and the client each represent and warrant that it has not acted, will not act, and has not and will not cause, directly or indirectly, any other third party to act, in any manner that would cause FS and the client or any of their Group, to violate the Laws. Each party agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the other party and its affiliates' respective directors, officers, employees, agents, successors, and assigns, against demands, liabilities, fines, penalties, losses, and damages (including costs, investigation and litigation expenses and counsel fees incurred in connection therewith) arising out of or related to its obligations under this Article.

6. Both parties to this Agreement agree that the parties and their attorneys shall not communicate with anyone associated with any media or publication entities concerning the terms of this Agreement. This confidentiality provision is a material term of this Agreement, and its violation shall constitute a breach of this Agreement.
7. During the life of this agreement and for one year after the termination of this agreement, FS agrees not to represent or work for any party or association in conflict with the client without your prior written consent.
8. Notwithstanding the terms of this Agreement, either party may terminate this Agreement upon 30 days written notice to the other. This Agreement shall be governed, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, United States of America excluding its conflicts of laws principles.
9. The parties may renew this agreement for an additional time period as further agreed in writing.

If the above reflects the understanding reached by you and FS, please sign below. I look forward to working with you.

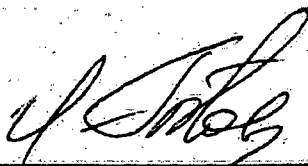

Sincerely,

Molly K. McKew
Fianna Strategies
